

Services for 50+ at the ACC

The Lake Oswego Adult Community Center offers human services to anyone in the community aged 50 or better and/or disabled, usually free of charge. Services are available to both members and non-members. The ACC is here to help when you need it. Confidentiality respected.

Assistive Listening Equipment is available for use at the Center to enhance hearing when a person attends classes or programs at the Center.

Income Tax Assistance

Volunteers trained by AARP prepare simple Federal and State tax returns, by appointment only during tax season.

Medical Equipment Loan Program

The Center has a variety of equipment to lend on a short-term basis, and can link clients to other low-cost programs if it cannot meet their needs. No fee is required, though a donation is appreciated.

Respite Program

Lake Oswego Place, the Center respite program for adults with memory loss or confusion due to Alzheimer's Disease, Parkinson's, stroke, and related disorders, meets every Tuesday and Thursday from 11:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. in the Acorn Room. This is a four-hour professionally guided recreation and social program which includes lunch and snacks. Registration is necessary. Cost is $30 per afternoon, but some scholarships are available to Lake Oswego residents.
