

City Attorney Frequently Asked Questions

Legal Advice

Because the City Attorney's Office serves as legal counsel for the City, we cannot give private legal advice to citizens. We can provide copies of the City's charter and ordinances (also available at the Lake Oswego Public Library), and are available for questions regarding the City's laws and procedures. This information is not intended as a substitute for your own lawyer's advice, but rather to help you better understand the City's ordinances and rules.

Barking Dogs

It is a violation for an owner or keeper who owns or is in physical possession or control of an animal, to permit any animal to cause unreasonable annoyance, alarm or noise disturbance at any time of the day or night by repeated barking, whining, screeching, howling, braying, or other like sounds which may be heard beyond the boundary of the owner's or keeper's property. Violation of this law is subject to a civil citation and fine. (LOC 31.02.120(5)).

Door-to-Door Solicitation

Door-to-door solicitation is legal in Lake Oswego if conducted within certain periods of time and not on private property that has a posted "No Solicitation" sign. Persons who enter private property posted outside of the permitted hours or when a "No Solicitation" sign is posted are guilty of criminal trespass. These restrictions are applicable to any person or group who goes door-to-door for any reason, but only applies to property used for residential purposes. (LOC Article 34.16). See Door-to-Door Solicitation for more information.

Landlord/Tenant Complaints

The City Attorney's Office has no jurisdiction over landlord/tenant complaints. For further information on landlord/tenant rights and obligations, we suggest landlords and tenants contact their private attorneys. For general information and referrals, we are aware of the following resources:

1. Landlord and Tenant Laws of Oregon, ORS Chapter 90
