It's big, it's strong, it's free, it wears hiking boots and roams the globe... It's definitely Trildino! In fact we're two, and we simply enjoy walking long distance hiking trails. It is a perfect way to 'get away from it all'. To choose a destination and find out about existing trails, gathering maps and guides, reading other hikers' experiences, it's all part of the fun.

As Trildino we aim to share our enthusiasm and information with you. Likewise, we invite you to share your enthusiasm and information with Trildino. We look forward to meeting you, be it on a hiking trail or on our Trildino website!
