

About the Lake Oswego Municipal Court

The Municipal Court is the judicial branch of Lake Oswego city government. It has jurisdiction over all violations of city and state laws committed within city limits other than felonies. The court does not handle civil or small claims cases.

For More Information

The Municipal Court clerks can answer questions about the court schedule, bail amounts, and other administrative matters, but they cannot give legal advice. If you need legal advice, you should consult an attorney. For help in finding one, call the Oregon State Bar's Lawyer Referral Service at (503) 620-0222 or 1-800-452-8260.
