Blood Will Tell (a Point Last Seen Mystery) by April Henry

A teenage sleuth becomes the prime suspect in a heinous murder case in Portland, Oregon. Nick Walker isn't the most popular kid around, but he's felt at home working for the Portland Search and Rescue team. With crush Alexis and friend Ruby at his side, Nick has helped the police many times. When a woman's body is discovered six blocks from his apartment, Nick thinks nothing of jumping into action with his SAR team.

Mapmaker by Mark Bombback and Galaxy Craze

Tanya Barrett is the daughter of deceased cartographer Michael Barrett, whose tragic passing while following his life's passion is devastating to both Tanya and her stepmother. When Tanya begins a summer internship at her father's company, MapOut, she accesses secret e-mails that her late father's partner has been trying to hack into. All in the blink of an eye, the son of her father's partner disappears, and she is kidnapped and nearly murdered, landing somewhere completely off the grid.

Nearly Found by Elle Cosimano

Nearly Boswell is excited about her new internship in the forensics lab of the local police station and is ready to put her past nightmares behind her. That is, until the corpse of a girl from her trailer park is brought in and a vicious cycle begins in which all of the incoming bodies are in some way tied to Nearly. With her internship on the line, she decides not to tell the police about her connections to the victims, and she begins a string of poor choices.

When You Leave by Monica Ropal

A skater girl-turned-private school coed investigates the death of her two-week-old hookup in this debut. After her single mom remarries and moves Cass to private school, the teen copes by maintaining her friendships with the male skateboarders from her old neighborhood, including her best friend, Mattie, who has become mute after a bout with throat cancer. In spite of her disdain for St. Bernadette's, Cass falls for Cooper, an attractive peer counselor who has the bad luck to be murdered two weeks after he and Cass meet. When Cass' skater friend Gav is accused of the murder, she is determined to clear his name.

The Edge of the Shadows by Elizabeth George

George continues the story of Becca King, who can hear the "whispers" of other people's thoughts. On the run from her evil stepfather, Becca was left on Whidbey Island by her mother in The Edge of Nowhere and found her powers beginning to grow even as she wove her life into the fabric of the island in The Edge of the Water.

Fall Out by Gwenda Bond

A teen reporter busts a cyberbullying ring at her new school in Metropolis. Lois Lane is new in town, and she's doing her best to keep her head down and her nose clean. Her Army general father is hoping to make their family's stay in Metropolis permanent, and Lois doesn't want to jeopardize that. She joins the Daily Scoop, a teen subsidiary of the Daily Planet, in an effort to make friends.
