

Resource Conservation Protection Area (RCPA) Determination

A Resource Conservation (RC) Protection Area is a portion of a delineated RC District (tree grove) that is required to be identified and protected from development prior to obtaining a building permit or a major or minor development permit on a property containing an RC District.

Additional information is provided in the document listed below.

Supporting Documents

Resource Conservation Protection Area \(RCPA\) Determination

Source URL (retrieved on 03/03/2015 - 8:31am):

<http://ci.oswego.or.us/planning/resource-conservation-protection-area-rcpa-determination>