

Resource Enhancement Projects

“Resource” refers to a stream corridor, wetland or tree grove identified on the City’s Sensitive Lands Atlas. Stream corridors and wetlands are identified as Resource Protection (RP) districts, and tree groves are identified as Resource Conservation (RC) districts on the Atlas. A resource enhancement project improves the quality or quantity (area) of the resource.

Additional information is provided in the document listed below.

Supporting Documents

Resource Enhancement Projects

Source URL (retrieved on 06/25/2017 - 3:20am): <http://ci.oswego.or.us/planning/resource-enhancement-projects>