Masque Alfresco is now into its lucky thirteenth Summer Park Tour of commedia dell'arte plays. This year Masque Alfresco performs Moliere's Would-Be Gentleman, performed with all the traditions: slapstick beatings, hat lazzi, colorful period costumes - but updated for modern audiences with political jokes and celebrity slams ripped straight from the headlines. And always family friendly - Join us on the Memorial Garden with lawn chairs, blankets, picnics and the family dog (on a leash) - and bring your funny bone!
