

Open Burning

Open burning including agricultural burning is not allowed in Lake Oswego as part of the Metro DEQ no burning zone.

-

Recreational Burn

The fire department recommends the use of an approved manufactured fireplace or fire pit. Requirements for these types of fireplaces would include the safety information listed in the manufacturers instructions.

read more

-

Bon Fires

Bon Fires are considered anything larger than a Recreational Fire which is wood piled higher than 2' and or broader than 3'. Bon Fires require a permit from the Fire Department and have special requirements listed in the supporting document below.

read more

Open Burning

Published on City of Lake Oswego Oregon Official Website (<http://ci.oswego.or.us>)

Source URL (retrieved on 11/18/2017 - 11:25am): <http://ci.oswego.or.us/fire/open-burning>