

January 31: Film Screening with Film Co-Director

Film Screening with Co-Director Emmanuel Habimana

Thursday, January 31, 7:15 p.m. at Lewis & Clark College's Templeton Center, 0615 SW Palatine Hill Rd.
Free, but registration required.

Filmmaker Emmanuel Habimana was only 9 during the 1994 Rwandan genocide and his powerful story of survival is told through the film, Komora: to heal, a documentary co-directed by Emmanuel and sponsored by National Geographic.

Today, Emmanuel is committed to a vision of a world that increases in peace, hope and reconciliation. He was awarded a scholarship at Lewis and Clark College where he is currently enrolled.

A question and answer session with Emmanuel will follow a screening of the movie.

Register here

Learn more about Emmanuel here

•

Directions

Lewis & Clark College's Templeton Center 0615 SW Palatine Hill Rd
Portland, OR 97219

January 31: Film Screening with Film Co-Director

Published on City of Lake Oswego Oregon Official Website (<http://ci.oswego.or.us>)

See map: Google Maps

Source URL (retrieved on 11/22/2017 - 2:49am):

<http://ci.oswego.or.us/loreads/january-31-film-screening-film-co-director>