

February 5: Rwandan Music

Rwandan Music

Tuesday, February 5, 7:00 p.m. at the Library, 706 4th St.

Musician Eric Sifa lived through the Rwandan genocide. To comfort himself and other children living on the streets, he began singing his mother's songs. Now he speaks and performs in both Rwanda and the United States, advocating for marginalized children. He will be playing his guitar and performing songs from his three albums as well as sharing some of his personal experiences from his time in Rwanda.

You can learn more about Eric Sifa here

Source URL (retrieved on 06/24/2017 - 8:44am): <http://ci.oswego.or.us/loreads/february-5-rwandan-music>