

Water Smart Video Library

Every drop of water counts. On this site you can enjoy a variety of video demonstrations for tips and ideas relating to water conservation.

-

-

- Car Washing Video

- Did you know that washing your car in the driveway can use up to 140 gallons of water? Washing your car properly saves water. And water quality.

- read more

-

-

- Fix a Leak Videos

- Do you know if you have a leaky faucet, valve or toilet? Watch these handy "how-to" videos to help you find and repair leaks in your home.

- read more

-

-

- Irrigation Systems Videos

- These videos provide detailed instructions for things that you can do that will reduce the amount of water your irrigation system uses. Videos No. 1, 2 and 4 are designed to be used along with the linked worksheets.

- read more

-

-

- Naturescaping Video

Naturescaping seeks to match what you plant in your yard to the conditions of moisture, exposure, and soils in your yard using native plants and other well adapted (and well behaved) plants. It's water wise and helps improve water quality too!

read more

-

-

Using Your Water Meter to Find Leaks

Pin-pointing where a leak might be located can help save hundreds of dollars in plumber fees. Fixing the problem helps conserve water and save money on your bill. This video will help determine if you have a water leak and assist in isolating the location.

read more

-

-

Using a Water Gauge Video

Water gauges measure rainfall and sprinkler output. They can help you determine how much water your sprinklers need to add to your lawn or shrubs. Do you know how much water your lawn needs a week?

read more

Source URL (retrieved on 06/24/2017 - 7:20pm): <http://ci.oswego.or.us/publicworks/water-smart-video-library>